History of Veteran: Please provide a short bio of the veteran in approximately 100 words. An example is as follows:

Carl was born in Invermere Nov. 30, 1921. He joined the Canadian Army with brother Jack in 1940, and Carl served in Scotland harvesting lumber with the Canadian Forestry Corps. In Europe, he participated in the 1944 Battle of the Bulge. After the war he married Marion and had children Sandra, Suzanne, and Jim. Carl was both a mechanic and trucker, and owned two ranches – one on the site of the current Invermere high school, and another south of town overlooking Lake Windermere, Brady Ranch. A lifelong athlete, Carl coached track and field, and hockey. His favourite pastime was fishing with his family and friend, Jim Ashworth. He loved his family, and his eleven grandchildren always held a special place in his heart. He died March 16, 1995.
